

Convex Mirror

Convex Mirror is extensively used for blind spots at internal lanes, parking and used to give visibility of the approaching vehicle from the other side and is also utilized at toll booth gathering centers and factories, inside shops, warehouses, to get a superior view of surrounding area to minimize the risk of accidents. They prevent collisions at corners, intersections and aisles and many more. The offered mirror is checked in terms of quality so that we can deliver flawless range from us. This mirror is manufactured using optimum quality basic material and high-end technology with the market norms. Our engineers and technical team also provide customised designs range of convex mirrors as per the requirements of the customers, with firm commitment to quality, we have been able to provide the customers with an excellent range of Convex Mirrors.

Features:

Anti-abrasion with High durability

FRP is used in making brim & back holding plates

The mirrors are light weight & come with fixtures

Eco-friendly as these do not emit toxic fumes on burning

Single-piece polycarbonate used for greater damage resistance