

Traffic Cones

traffic Cones offered comes available in superior grade PVC material finish and provide for flexible usage support so as to ensure it does not get damaged even on event of vehicle running over it. Further, its superior anti-UV and fading resistant finish also makes these highly preferred and demanded by the customers

Traffic Cones are available in durable construction finish. Lasting longer in comparison to other similar options available in the market, these traffic cones come in highly visible color finish and PVC construction that makes these maintenance free from issues like cracking and fading. These are suitable to be used in areas like highways, parking lots and other similar places.

Traffic cones, also called pylons, witches' hats, road cones, highway cones, safety cones, or construction cones, are usually cone-shaped markers.

Specifications:

Height: 710mm

Weight: 3.1kg

Color: Orange

Features:

Available in fluorescent orange to provide for high visibility

High intensity reflective stripe

Reasonable design that allows cone to be stacked one by one

Providing for suitable usage for caution/warning on road

Provide for high usage flexibility so that these are not be broken even if struck by hard things.